

Allen Family Members' Gallery & Gift Shop

Shop Seller Application

The Allen Family Members' Gallery & Gift Shop (AFMG) is the Carnegie Arts Center's (CAC) primary retail space for exhibiting and selling the work of regional artisans, craftspeople, and artists on a year-round basis. The AFMG also sells art, exhibition, facility, and program related merchandise. The AFMG is guided by a Committee made up of Carnegie Arts Center Foundation board member(s), CAC staff, and a select group of artists or art professionals associated with the CAC, but not necessarily showing work in the shop.

The goals of the AFMG are to:

- Provide a venue for art-loving shoppers to find unique and handmade items for collecting, decorating, and gifts.
- Increase sales revenue for CAC member artists and for the CAC by becoming the region's "go to" spot for finding the works of local artists and artisans.
- Maintain a diverse array of items for sale, routinely updating inventory and increasing the number of artists featured to keep the image of the AFMG and CAC fresh and worthy of return visits.

Participation in the AFMG includes:

- The opportunity for CAC member artists to show and sell artwork in a unique retail venue in Downtown Turlock.
- The chance for CAC member artists to gain exposure to a larger audience.
- The possibility for participating artists to be selected for showcase spot in the storefront window.
